Team: I sent counsel for the Tribes a courtesy copy of Maine's administrative petition, which could obviously impact the litigation depending upon how EPA decides to handle it. I suggested they reach out to normal channels at EPA if they wish to discuss it.

Subject: Maine administrative petition for withdrawal

Jane, Kaighn: Maine has petitioned EPA to withdraw the decisions it has challenged in the current lawsuit, as well as the federal water quality standards. A copy of the petition is attached, and I understand it was provided to EPA yesterday. Because this is an administrative petition, I will not necessarily be substantively involved in it. Accordingly, while I am always happy to speak with you, and while I continue to be the primary point of contact for the litigation, it would make sense for you to reach out to your normal contacts at EPA if you wish to discuss the administrative petition with the Agency.
